The Rev. R. C. Cowling, of Orange Court House and his bride, are at Mr. Cowling's parents, in West End.
Mr. Frank E. Anderson left this morning for Richmond, where he will spend a week with his wife, who has been ill in that city for over a year. He has the best wishes of his friends (in which the "Gazette" unites) that she may soon recover sufficiently to return to her home in this city.
Rev. D. F. Ward, who, with Mrs. Ward, is visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. T. F. Ewing, has received a call to Texas.
Bishop Gibson will tomorrow night administer the rite of confirmation at Christ Church.
Ex-Gov. O'Ferrall and Congressman Lamb passed through this city this morning on their way from Washington to Richmond.

WILL FILED.—The will of the late Miss Sarah A. Stuart was admitted to probate in the Corporation Court today. Mr. W. F. Carne, who was named as executor, declined to qualify administrator. The estate is valued at about $2,000. The deceased left Catherine Butler, colored, her interest in a lot at the corner of Lee street and Fayette alley, and also $200 and some furniture; to Sarah A. Sullivan $100 and an old clock; to Amanda A. and Mary A. Carne $100 each, some furniture and a crayon picture of Gen. Washington by Dr. Dick; to Harriet A. Jones $100 and some furniture; to Mary J. Stewart, Jos. Gaylor, Mary M. Carne, Mary Douglas, Marion B. Butler and Stewart Smith, $100 each; to Andrew Sullivan and W. F. Carne, some pictures; to Mary and Fanny Wilson, $50 each; to the Home Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian Church, $100; to Rev. Walter Robertson, some pictures, and to Kitty Butler, Hattie Jones and Lizzie Butler, some furniture. Messrs. R. F. Knox, K. Kemper and F. F. Marbury were appointed appraisers.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor George L. presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:
John Mills, William Baker and Wm. Roberts, charged with vagrancy, were put on bread and water diet.
Hannah Beal, colored, charged with assaulting and beating Bridget Mulcair, was dismissed.
Lewis Raines, colored, charged with assaulting Walter Dudley with a knife, was dismissed.
George Parker, colored, charged with disorderly conduct was dismissed.
Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and cool. Five prisoners and one lodger were at the station house.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—The Harrisburg Journal says of Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company: "The company made a good showing on the street, having two bands, a female drum corps, big bloodhounds, real donkeys. They also had a number of floats carrying emblematic statuary, and 'Eve' herself. Nearly every seat in the park for the night performance was sold before noon."

WASHINGTON, D. C.

SOUTHERN'S BIG ORDER.—The Southern Railway is about to make probably the largest purchase of equipment ever made by any road in this country at any one time. Bids were opened in Washington yesterday by representatives of the road for the purchase of ten passenger coaches, ten baggage and express cars, thirty-six locomotives and 2,400 freight cars. The order approximately $2,000,000. The Southern will have fifty new passenger coaches in service by September 1. The great addition to the equipment is evidence not only of the prosperity of the Southern, but of the rapid development of the South.

REV. MR. HUNT.—The New York Herald of Thursday says: "The Rev. George L. Hunt, who for two years has been pastor of the Greenville branch of the Bergen Baptist Church, in Jersey City, on Wednesday sent his resignation to the trustees, with the information that he had accepted a call from the First Baptist Church of Alexandria, Va. Mr. Hunt will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday next, and will begin his duties in his new field on the Sunday following. His departure is sincerely regretted by his friends in Jersey City."

I. O. O. F.—At a meeting of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, held last night, all the officers appeared in handsome and costly new regalia, the gift of a number of members of the order. The presentation address was made by John T. Roberts, member of the police force. The regalia was received on the part of the lodge by the Noble Grand. A rising vote of thanks was extended to Brother J. T. Roberts for his special efforts and presentation remarks, and to Past Grand P. M. Bradshaw, who assisted in securing the outfit.

RECIAT.—Mr. Archibald Olmstead, who is to assist Miss Pollard in her recital on May 3, is a musician of great talent well known and much sought in Washington musical circles. He has for some years been organist at St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, Washington, and is also pianist for the Washington Metropolitan Opera Company when they are in Washington. Mr. Olmstead has besides a large music class in Washington.

U. R. CLUB.—The "hook 'em up meet," under the auspices of the U. R. Club, which begins next Monday night at Sarepta Hall, promises to be a most unique entertainment. Old time country dances will be the leading attraction for a week, and between the dances each night will be introduced cakewalks, fancy dances and other amusements.

TRAMPS ARRESTED.—Two tramps, Fred Oliver and Dan Mitchell, were arrested on the depot this evening on suspicion of having been implicated in the recent Strasburg bank robbery. They belong to a gang of tramps who infest the city annually and at different times seem to have plenty of money.

EXAMINATION.—As will be seen by a notice elsewhere the examination of applicants for City Engineer will be held at the City Hall building next Thursday morning. The examiner named is Messrs. R. C. Sneed, W. H. Finke and J. S. Garland.

CHAPTER.—Judge Nicol has granted a charter to the Washington Monument Association of Alexandria, the object of which is to secure a park and erect a monument to Washington in this city. The capital stock is $500 and the association is to be allowed to own land to the value of $25,000. Mr. W. B. Sneed is president and Mr. A. J. Wedderburn secretary. All the members of the association are Alexandrians.

Y. M. C. NOTES.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the lecture on the "Pagan Play" to be delivered by Prof. E. D. Brady in Lyceum Hall on next Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

On Tuesday evening, May 1, Prof. Maurice Joyce, instructor at the Carroll Institute, Washington, will give the members of the Lyceum a talk on "athletics."

DROWNED.—The burgess Hiawatha on her way down the river from Washington yesterday capsized and sunk off Shubert's Point and one of the two colored men on board was drowned.

FISH.—Since yesterday 50,000 herring and 50 and have arrived at Fishward Herring sold at $2.50 per thousand and shad at $3.50 per hundred.

SOFT SHELL CRABS ON TOAST.—First of the season, at HARMON'S RESTAURANT. Try our delicious deviled crabs. Lyndhaven hard-shell crabs steamed twice daily. (Claus and oysters in all styles. All orders through H-m phone 63 will receive prompt attention.

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle of Govey's TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. 50c

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. E. Tobin, of Washington, has leased the Exchange & Ballard and after renovating that well-known hotel will have a formal opening about May 15.

A pink tea was given last night in West End, at the residence of Mrs. Frank Ballenger, for the benefit of St. John's Chapel. A musical programme was rendered during the evening.

The trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary and High School will hold their annual meeting on Wednesday, May 2, at 10 a. m., in the library of the Theological Seminary.

Proceedings for divorce have been instituted in Washington by Laura A. Jacobs against James C. Jacobs, cruelty on the part of the latter being alleged. The parties were married in this city the 5th of December, 1898.

Mr. S. H. Lunt today sold for Mr. M. E. Harlow, trustee, five lots or parcels of land, aggregating 17 acres, situated in Alexandria county and known as the Swallow tract, to Mrs. Pamela Ketchford for $3,100 in cash.

Policeman Lyles reported last night that his father's shoe shop, at 917 Duke street, was burglarized on Thursday night and several pairs of shoes stolen. The police have been at work on the case, but have not discovered any clew. This evening a white boy named Gus Robinson was arrested charged with committing the robbery.

A delegation from Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons last night paid fraternal visit to Kemper Lodge at Falls Church and conferred the degree. The visitors were handsomely entertained and returned home at a late hour.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad stole a march on the Hyattsville authorities Thursday night and succeeded in laying an additional piece of track about a quarter of a mile long, which will connect the Alexandria branch with the Washington branch, in the center of that town.

A colored woman named Hattie Beale was brought to the stationhouse last night charged with an assault upon an old woman named Bridget Mulcaire, in the northeastern suburbs of the city. It was alleged that she attacked two white women and knocked both of them down. This morning she was dismissed.

At "City View," the farm of Mr. F. P. Reid, near this city, a duck last week laid an egg of unusual size, and Mr. Reid determined to save the shell for a curiosity. He made a small opening in the shell and found there another perfectly formed egg about four times the size of the outer shell.

A white boy about 13 years old, who gave his name as Willie Fant, was sent from Arlington today and is now at the station house. He says he was brought from Culpeper county by a colored man who left him in Washington. The boy's story is not believed.
